Visualize a place that feels like home lit with candles and filled with flowers. One long, wooden fishbone table perfectly styled with beautiful tableware. Now add full-on restaurant service to that intimate vibe. That is what you can expect when you walk into Ninour for your private dining.

We have the perfect space for you and your friends, family or colleagues to enjoy an afternoon or night out. A candle-lit table filled with the most amazing dishes, wines and your favorite persons. Everything is possible, just like it would be in your own home. From the food to the lighting, and from the decorations to the music: you decide.

LET'S GET SPOILED

Ninour is a diverse concept. We offer delicious catering for external events and have a great event space available for both business – or personal events. Our food is healthy and packed with flavor and the interior of the event space makes a clear statement, yet feels like an extension of your living room.
